TWO YOUTHS HELD FOR TRANSPORTING STOLEN MACHINE

William C. Elder, 20, of Cincinnati, and Clifford H. Wilson, 18, of Atlanta, were placed under bonds of $2,000 each by U. S. Commissioner Griffith Friday on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile from Cincinnati here.

Full confessions of both the youths were introduced as evidence in the hearing. They stated that they had stolen the car in Cincinnati last month and had come to Atlanta in it. Here the car had been traded for another and it was recovered Thursday, it was testified. They had been staying with a Mrs. Eugenia Holcombe, said to be an aunt of Wilson, since their arrival here, the confession stated and Davis.

Sam Anshrum, of 659 Delbridge street, Atlanta, was placed under $100 bond on a charge of selling and possessing whisky.

VACATION OVER, SHERIFF IS BACK "FIT AS FIDDLE"

Sheriff James I. Lowry has returned to his duties at the courthouse following a brief vacation in Florida. Sheriff Lowry went to Florida to rest up following an attack of illness. On his return Friday he announced himself as feeling "fit as a fiddle" and ready to take up his work again.

WIFE RESTRAINED FROM ANNOYING STUART MURRAY

An order temporarily restraining Mrs. Ruth Murray from calling on, calling up or writing letters to her husband, Stuart P. Murray, was handed down Friday by Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy in Fulton superior court in a divorce action instituted by Murray.

The petition filed by Murray alleges that on one occasion, while he was holding his wife to prevent her from striking him, she bit him and that he now bears a scar from the wound. Mrs. Murray worries and harasses him by interfering with him at his home and place of business during separations, the petition charges. The paper was filed by the law firm of Wright and Davis.

The restraining order is set for a hearing on February 9.

CLANGING OF CAR GONG SAVES MAN FROM GAS FUMES

Clanging of a street car gong early Friday in front of his house probably saved S. E. Brown, 53, of 601 Cooper street, from death by asphyxiation, according to reports of police. Brown, who is a locksmith, smelled gas when he retired Thursday night, he said, but paid no attention to it. Mrs. Brown was spending the night at the home of a son. About 6:30 o'clock Friday morning the persistent clanging of a trolley gong in front of the house aroused him.

Starting to arise, he found himself too weak and dizzy to rise from the bed. Neighbors, hearing his cries, entered the house and found the room filled with gas from an open yet in the kitchen stove. After treatment, Brown was released from Grady hospital.

DEATH CAR DRIVER CLEARED OF BLAME BY GRAND JUROR

Action clearing W. S. Long of all blame for the death of Harold Bel 13, on January 14 in an accident on Johnson road in Simsville, was taken Friday by the Fulton grand jury in returning a no bill following the hearing of testimony in the case. The Bel child was fatally injured by an empty coal truck driven by Long while the boy was skating in the street with companions, it was stated.

HARRIS GIVES REASON BEHIND NEWSPAPER BILL

Georgian Says Power of Press Makes Chains Danger to Nation.

Washington, January 25.—(AP)—Senator Harris, democrat, Georgia, issued a statement today giving his reasons for introduction of a bill proposing to deny second class mailing privileges to newspapers which shall hereafter be held in common ownership with any other newspaper.

"Within recent months," his statement said, "two men in Tennessee have acquired ownership of two newspapers in Nashville, two in Memphis, one in Knoxville, and have sought to obtain possession of one in Atlanta. Recently men who live in other states have come into ownership and control of several newspapers in Georgia. For a number of years there have been in Georgia newspapers which were units in a nation-wide chain. In the state of Alabama one man owns four daily newspapers, another owns the two largest and is in reality the owner of a third.

"The same condition exists in many other states and almost every day we hear of newspapers being bought up by owners of a chain of newspapers. It does not require a great stretch of the imagination for one to realize how this condition of affairs can seriously jeopardize the public interest. Newspapers are mainly relied upon by the public for their information concerning the news of the world and, in large degree, newspapers lead and control public sentiment on public questions.

"This being true, owners of newspapers with special interests to serve can, if they are so disposed, color their news and editorials in such manner as to mislead the public. Ownership of great groups of newspapers through the influence achieved by these newspapers, are given undue power over public opinion and are in a position to seriously affect if not to altogether destroy what was intended by our forefathers to be a democratic form of government.

"My bill does not undertake to interfere with newspapers already under common ownership but its purpose is to discourage and if possible prevent a man or set of men from acquiring and controlling several newspapers."

ARRESTED 126 TIMES FOR BEING DRUNK, MAN FINALLY DIES

Orange, N. J., January 25.—The death of Nicholas Workowitz, who in ten years, was arrested 126 times for intoxication, has ended a Russian's career of mystery. Before the war, arrayed in the best of clothes he was wont to taxi to saloons from his hotel, always displaying a wad of bills. His physique gave evidence of army service. After the war he lived by peddling such things as his silk hat and doing odd carpentering jobs for which he said a university course qualified him.

AFGHANS REPORTED IN REVOLT AGAINST THEIR NEW KING

London, January 25.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Peshawar, India, today said that a widespread rebellion had occurred in Afghanistan against "Bachao Sakao," who is now occupying the throne still exists at Kabul. The fact that the northern chieftain is not a pathan but a tajik was given as the cause for the rebellion. The Exchange Telegraph correspondent said that this would not necessarily cause a general return of allegiance to the deposed King Amanullah. However, a considerable degree of support for him has developed.

FLA. RESTAURANT MAN SHOT BY CARPENTER

Shooting Follows Quarrel Between the Two Men.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 25.—(AP) Frank W. Borgis, 32, restaurant proprietor, was shot and killed here today by J. W. Turner, 54, a carpenter, following an altercation that grew out of a quarrel between Turner's son, Ernest, and a negro employee of Borgis, named Thomas Winn.

Reports to police stated that the negro beat young Turner yesterday when he caught him stealing liquor from Borgis. Turner had the negro arrested and Borgis, becoming infuriated, went to the carpenter's home and after a quarrel, is alleged to have sent another man to his restaurant to get a gun. Turner got a shotgun from his home and fired. Borgis fell dead with a wound in his neck.

Turner was arrested on a charge of murder, and his son was charged with being an accessory. The negro was arrested for fighting. Young Turner was at liberty on bail awaiting trial on a charge of breaking and entering and is the same man, police said, who recently was sentenced to 30 days on the city prison farm for impersonating a woman. Officers found him wearing three corsets, a skirt and a woman's shoes and stockings.

TWO CONGRESSMEN ARE HELD APART TO STOP ENCOUNTER

Washington, January 25.—(AP)—Representatives Blanton, of Texas, and Elliott, of Indiana, engaged in a sharp exchange in the House today and when they resumed it later in the house lobby were held apart by fellow members.

Several versions of the clash circulated through the chamber, including one story that Elliott had thrown a book at the Texas, but both men later said "nothing serious happened."

The dispute began when Blanton charged on the floor that he had understood the Indiana member to have promised a year or so ago that post-offices would be provided for Sweetwater and Coleman, Texas, if he would support the public buildings bill. Blanton denied that he made such a promise and Blanton declared he would put into the record a statement confirming his declaration. Representative Cramton, republican Michigan, observed that "Since Texas now is a republican state, there is no need to worry about postoffices."

The OBOY GANG—ONE WAY TRAFFIC FOR OBOY BREAD!

OBOY BREAD

THE BREAD THAT'S DEDICATED TO ALL CHILDREN BECAUSE IT'S SO GOOD FOR THEM

TRAFFIC stops short when Oboy bread rides by! Even the pup feels the importance of his position.

Children instinctively pay their respects to Oboy bread. It's their own loaf. New and different. Dedicated to them. Baked for them. Crammed with the health-giving nutriment they need. With a flavor and a freshness that they like. That's why, within the last couple months, they have made Oboy bread one of the most popular loaves in town.

Children who never cared for bread are eating Oboy—in a dozen different ways. Its crumbly, golden crust and smooth, white center is good just with butter, jam or jelly. It makes such crisp, enticing toast. It lends itself perfectly to sandwiches. And as for Bread Pudding and Brown Betty—well, you'll just have to try it, that's all! You can get it at your grocer's. Of course, adults like it too.

STONE BAKING COMPANY

300 DELEGATES ATTEND
CALHOUN-FALLS EVENTWitness Ground Breaking for Industrial and Farm Development.

Elberton, Ga., January 25.—(P)—Pooling resources toward development of the whole section, commercial and civic organizations of thirty cities in Georgia and South Carolina joined on the banks of the Savannah river near here today in the formation of the Georgia-South Carolina Piedmont federation.

The occasion for the gathering was the breaking of ground for a proposed model industrial city on the South Carolina side of the river, and a projected year-round resort on the Georgia side, promoted by an eastern syndicate headed by S. C. McClure, Philadelphia publisher, and Philip Miner, Governor Richards, of South Carolina, handled the steam wheel's controls as the big scoop took its first bite. Governor Hardman, of Georgia, who was prevented by weakness from a recent illness from attending, was represented by Chief Engineer W. A. Neel, of the Georgia highway department.

The purpose of the organization perfected today, it was explained, will be maintenance of a lobby in Washington for the benefit of the section, promotion of a geological survey of the region, support of a road building program, local betterment activities and attraction of tourists and vacationists.

Speakers of the ceremonies pictured the whole region as now in the midst of a renaissance in cultural, agricultural and industrial development dating from the dedication and opening of the Savannah river bridge connecting the Georgia and South Carolina divisions of the Piedmont region.

Because of rains which have made treacherous footing of the roads on both sides of the river, it was pointed out that the condition afforded current material for the federation's campaign for road betterment. Opening of the exercises was delayed from 10 to 12 o'clock by late arrival of delegates who spent the time digging out of the mud. Several parties reported by phone they had given up the trip.

Eighteen towns finally were represented, among the 300 persons present. Governor Richards declared that the industrial development of South Carolina symbolized by the exercises in progress constitute only a part of the good fortune at hand for the state, and for Georgia's well. He predicted also an agricultural reawakening.

Ceremonies were held on both sides of the river.

Contracts already awarded in connection with the Georgia-South Carolina development project total about $14,000,000.

ATLANTA MINISTER AIDS IN CEREMONIES.
Rev. S. L. Morris, of Atlanta, secretary of the Presbyterian board of home missions, delivered the invocation with which each of the three programs of the day opened.

Senator Fred D. West, of Abbeville; Governor Richards, S. R. McClure, and Philip Miner, the last two chairmen of the board and president, respectively, of the eastern syndicate inaugurating the big developments, made addresses explaining the significance of the undertaking and what it will accomplish for the community.

Following the exercises on both sides of the state line, the delegates returned to Calhoun Falls, S. C., center for the luncheon which the chamber of commerce had awaiting them for more than two hours, and to enter upon the charter convention called to found the Georgia-South Carolina Piedmont federation.

Eighteen cities throughout the surrounding zone were represented by duly qualified delegations and a number of applications were awaiting from other cities anxious to join in the offensive and defensive alliance for comprehensive community betterment and increased numbers of tourists, winter residents and industries.

It was well toward evening before the business session got under way.

North and South
Division at End,
States Ivy Lee

The imaginary dividing line between the north and south has been completely obliterated from the minds of business executives of the east, in the opinion of Ivy Lee, noted publicist of New York, and former Atlanta, who is at the Elmore hotel. He came to Atlanta to address the annual Emory alumni dinner, joining his mother who came from her home in St. Louis for that purpose. The Lees are well known in Georgia. Mr. Lee's father, the late Dr. J. W. Lee, having held many important pastorates in the North Georgia Methodist conference. "Eastern business men no longer think in terms of the south or southeast," said Mr. Lee. "Of course they have been attracted by the remarkable industrial expansion that has taken place in the last few years and are mindful of the possibilities in resources at present undeveloped. But they have stopped dividing the south from the rest of the country in their thinking. This condition came about following the civil war prostration when dependence upon other sections of the country was forced upon the south. But that condition no longer exists. The financial independence of the southeast is shown in her bank statements, and big business interests recognize that the south today is able to stand on her own feet, so to speak. She has taken her place in their thinking as a very important part of the United States as a whole, rather than a section of it."

GEORGE HOPEFUL CONGRESS WILL AID FLOOD SUFFERERS

Favorable action by congress on the Smith-Fulmer bill, which provides relief for farmers of southern and middle Georgia and South Carolina, who suffered from floods, is anticipated by Senator Walter F. George, according to a telegram received Friday by C. L. Williamson, secretary of the Atlanta Association of Credit Men.

Senator George's telegram was sent in reply to a message from Mr. Williamson telling of approval of the bill by the wholesalers, manufacturers and bankers of this section. Mr. Williamson recently returned from a 1,500-mile tour of the sections involved and states that the need for funds for fertilizer and seed for new crops is acute.

Text of Senator George's wire follows: "I actively assisted in drawing the Smith-Fulmer resolution and have just returned from conference with president. We hope for favorable consideration, but the president is somewhat disturbed by appropriations recently made by congress."

Non-Removable Auto License Plate Shown To Capitol Officials

A demonstration by samples and motion pictures of the Fluker automobile license plate, invented in Thomson, was staged Friday in the offices of Secretary of State George H. Carswell. Mr. Carswell, who also is motor vehicle commissioner, and other department officials, were told that it is impossible to remove this plate after it is once attached to a car, thus obviating the use of the same tag on more than one car.

PLAN "MEMORY DANCE"

Spanish-American Veterans To Aid Needy.

A "memory dance" for benefit of indigent Spanish-American War Veterans and their widows and orphans will be held February 7 at Garber hall by the Lee-Roosevelt camp No. 6, of the organization, it was announced Friday by Ralph Steckel, adjutant of the camp.

"This is the first time that the Spanish war veterans have called upon the citizens of Atlanta to assist them," Mr. Steckel said, "however, they are now confronted with additional work in the cause of relief which makes it necessary for them to make this appeal."

BIG IMPROVEMENT
IN 1928 REPORTED
IN GEORGIA JAILS

A large percentage of Georgia jails showed outstanding improvements in 1928 in the matter of conforming to standards set by the delinquency division of the state department of public welfare, according to a report just made by Thomas B. Mims, director of the division. A progressive change in attitude toward inspections on the part of jail officials also was recorded, the report said. During a six-month period in 1928, 84 requests for special services were reported as received by the division from jail officials.

Then Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brought Relief

This startling letter from an ex-service man will interest everyone who suffers from constipation: "I was discharged after the World War with heart trouble and bad stomach. I had saved about $1500. Since then I've spent that sum and a lot more on doctoring and operations and medicines. I always was bothered with constipation."

"I told my wife to get some kind of light breakfast food and I would try it. She came home with a small package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I ate it for breakfast, lunch and dinner, about a common tea-saucer full with milk at each meal. I have been doing this for about a month. I have stopped taking dope (medicines). I work 9 to 12 hours. I have a good appetite. And now I am gaining flesh and believe I am getting well."

GEORGE C. O'CONNOR, Barker, N. Y.

Beaux Arts Ball Costumes Recall

BY ADELAIDE KERR.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
New York, January 25.—(P)— Social New York turned its back on modern America tonight to live for ten hours amid the scenes of cere-

Queens and court ladies, Napoleon and peasants, reminiscent of the days of the last Emperor, ruled the land.

For months New York had been preparing its costumes for this affair, given annually by the Society of Beaux Arts Architects and depicting a phase of French history. Three weeks before the ball, the ball was from the outside of the hotel, Broadway—or as much of it as could get within seeing distance—viewed the elegantly costumed ladies and court dignitaries as they arrived.

The ballroom of the hotel was decorated to represent the architecture of the Napoleon period. The largest of these, the "Salle d'Honneur," was ornamented in a manner

OUR SINFUL IGNORANCE—

Yes, the sin of the ignorant is a sin, but it is a sin of ignorance, not of malice.

PRAYER—Teach me Thy Way, O Lord, and lead me in the Way of Thy Everlasting.

Fallen on the Field.

The passing out of life of James A. Holloman, associate editor of The Constitution, in circumstances so painful and lamentable, will be acutely mourned by all in those wide circles that knew him personally or by his public services.

Those who will feel their sorrow most sincerely and longest are in The Constitution family of which he was a faithful member for a dozen busy years.

Mr. Holloman was a gentleman by birth and breeding, educated in a southern college of national distinction, and a journalist trained in special reportorial and responsible editorial lines. He won attention wherever he served and the patient sincerity and wisdom of his work was rewarded with the warmest forms of commendation.

His mind was methodical, his thoughts were seriously conceived and courageously expressed, and he had come, by varied experiences and patient fortitude, to a philosophy of life, duty and destiny that reached across the bar borders of spiritual faith.

Yet none knew better than our departed colleague that no human equation is perfect and he made no professions for himself that were other than humble and hopeful for the best. He shone in his intense repulsion of shams, hypocrisies and self-delusions.

The editorial writings of Mr. Holloman were distinguished by his loyal love for Georgia and the south and no contemporary editorialist surpassed him in his earnest advocacy of any measure or enterprise that would advance them in civilization and beneficent prosperities. For those services, unselfishly given, he was even in the hour of his fatal calamity, receiving the most honorable recognitions.

The Constitution and its readers, the state and the south will miss this virile and loyal servant who has fallen upon the field of honorable achievement and patriotic endeavor. No graven epitaph can be more eloquent in his praise than the general grief that follows him as he has gone beyond the impetuous veil.

OUR HAPPY HOROSCOPE.

All the prophets of this day, amateur and professional, including astrologers and crystal-gazers, seem to be agreed that 1929 is to be one of the most progressive and prosperous years in our history.

These possessions which are usually the guarantors of material advancement are ours in abundance. Our capital for production and investment is the greatest in the world. Our lands are overproductive rather than the reverse. Our industries, with local and temporary exceptions, are in high gear. Our unemployed labor is scarcely more than one per cent of our population.

Our national commerce is earning fat profits and our international trade shows a strong balance in our favor. Education is being pronounced all the way from kindergarten to post graduate specialization. Religion has made significant progress in both statistical relations and spiritual influence.

AUTO TAG OFFICIALS FACE LAST HOUR RUSH

Less Than Fifty Per Cent of Licenses Have Been Granted.

With only five working days left for disposal of state automobile license tags, less than 50 per cent of the 1929 tags have been sold. It was reported Friday in the office of George H. Carwell, secretary of state and ex-officio motor vehicle commissioner.

The mailing department for out-of-town customers has been so rushed with tag orders that workers already have begun night work in an effort to rush the shipments of tags.

On Friday the amount taken in excess of $125,000, marking a new high record for all time for a single day's business.

Secretary Carwell pointed out that although sheriffs under the law, cannot collect the $1 penalty fee until later in the year, owners are prohibited from driving their cars without a 1929 tag after February 1, unless they have a money order receipt showing that the new tag has been ordered.

WORTH MORE TO REED THAN ALL MONEY ON EARTH

Well-To-Do Lumberman and Farmer Says Sarg-on is Best Medicine
That Ever Entered His Home.

"This is the best medicine that ever entered our home. Besides helping me, it has made a well woman of my wife. I would not take all the money in the world for the good Sargon did for us."

"Five years ago while on the train going from Bensenville, Canada, to Calgary, I had a severe attack of acute indigestion, and nobody thought I would live to reach my destination."

When I came to myself I was in a hospital in Calgary. This first attack was the starting point of my poor health.

"Since then bilious attacks would come on me often, and I would suffer with headaches for days at a time. My liver was inactive and nearly everything I ate disagreed with me. I had something else that made me think I would die. I would get so dizzy I could hardly stand my feet. I was constipated nearly all the time. My nerves were so upset I didn't get a good night's sleep for years, and many nights I would get up and sit in a chair for hours."

"Sargon had built up my wife from a terribly rundown condition, so I decided to try the treatment. It has made a new man of me. I now eat anything I want and never have indigestion. My nerves are steady as a die and I sleep like a child. My old time strength has returned and I have gained fifteen pounds. I feel just fine all the time."

"I took Sargon Soft Mass Pills along with Sargon, and think they had a lot to do with my recovery. I consider them an essential part of the treatment."

"I am not only willing, but glad to tell others of the good the Sargon treatment did my wife and myself."

The above statement was made recently by Thomas B. Reed, of 919 Holmes St., Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Reed is a well-to-do farmer and lumberman. He was formerly Worshipful Master in the Masonic order.

Scores of people are calling daily at Jacobs' main store, 6 and 8 Marietta street, where a special representative of the Sargon laboratories has established headquarters and is explaining the merits of the celebrated medicines, Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills, which may also be obtained at the other Jacobs' stores all over Atlanta. Only Three and a Half Days In Mary Pickford Contest

Only three and a half more days to determine the identity of the Atlanta business girl who will be awarded a free trip to Hollywood and a gray frock, which is to be made by an impartial committee and their count is to be final and conclusive.

The 35 young women who are entered in "The Constitution's" Mary Pickford "Coquette" contest are hard at work to win the coveted reward, and the one who turns in the greatest number of new, six-month subscriptions to this paper by noon January 29 will be the winner.

That's the only thing involved in the contest, and the reward for the winner's activity will be great, indeed. She will leave Atlanta February 8 in company with a Constitution woman staff writer, and at Chicago she will board a special Mary Pickford Santa Fe train for Hollywood.

There she will be greeted by Miss Pickford, who now is engaged in filming the Broadway success, "Coquette," her first all-talking picture in which she shares honors with Johnny Mack Brown, the former Alabama football star.

A round of interesting events, including visits to Miss Pickford's palatial home and movie studios, receptions by film stars, trips to the beautiful coast islands and to Hollywood and Los Angeles smart places, has been arranged for Atlanta's "best girl," and in every way the trip will be one of the most enjoyable.

In view of this fact, the contestants here are urged to greatest activity during the few days remaining before the official close of the contest.

The following rules and regulations will govern the competition to select the business girl for a trip to Hollywood as the guest of Mary Pickford:

(1) Candidates must be residents of Atlanta or its immediate suburbs, the latter including such suburbs as College Park, East Point, Inglewood, Decatur, Dunwoody and Roswell, etc.

(2) Candidates must be 18 to 25 years old.

(3) Candidates must be regularly employed.

Pass on Resignations at Next Meeting.

Organization of the Atlanta Woman's club new administration under Mrs. John R. Hornady as president will be perfected at the regular meeting of the executive board of the club to be held within the next two weeks, no action having been taken at the called meeting of Friday with reference to the resignations of officers who served during the eight months of Mrs. Charles Goodman's administration, it was announced after the meeting.

An enthusiastic gathering of approximately 30 board members was held Friday morning at the club, with Mrs. Hornady presiding. Plans were made for a tea to be given at 3 o'clock next Friday afternoon in Mrs. Hornady's honor. Telegrams of congratulations to Mrs. Hornady upon her victory in the court-supervised election were read to the board.

Resignations of Mrs. Shepard Bryan, first vice president; Mrs. Victor Krieger, second vice president; Mrs. R. J. Reed, secretary; Mrs. Robert Cunningham, assistant secretary; Mrs. J. A. Carlisle, treasurer; and Mrs. J. F. MacDougal, auditor, were received by the board, but action on the resignations was deferred until the regular meeting, when officers of the new administration will be elected, it was said.

T. R. Jett, of Clayton county, pleaded guilty before Judge Sibley in United States court Friday to a charge of making whisky, and asked that he be given a term in the federal penitentiary here. As it was his first offense, however, he was sentenced to three months in the Fulton county jail.

The habeas corpus petition of Harry Fels, a federal prisoner here, was denied by Judge Sibley. Charged with stealing from the mails, Fels was sentenced July 20, 1928, in New York, to serve a year and a day. The sentence, however, had been back several months before the denial of the alleged crime, and it was claimed that he had now completed his sentence, with time off for good behavior. Judge Sibley ruled that the predating was in error.

Another habeas corpus petition was filed in United States court Friday for Joe Caracci, who is now serving a sentence in the penitentiary. The petition stated that the original sentence of three years had been later amended to 30 months and that this time had been served. Warden Shook refused to recognize the amended commitment, the petition states. A hearing on the matter has been set for 10 o'clock this morning.

TYPIST BY DAY, GIRL DRY SLECH AT NIGHT

Dual Role Bared in Padlock Proceedings Against "Dinty Moore."

New York, January 25.—(AP)—A typist by day and a federal prohibition agent at night was disclosed today as the role of Miss Marjorie Melius, 22-year-old beauty.

Disclosure of her employment as an undercover agent came at padlock proceedings against James (Dinty) Moore, who conducts a restaurant on West 46th street. Miss Melius and a male agent testified they bought liquor there.

The government's motion for the padlocking of the restaurant and for seizure of a $15,000 bond posted by Moore last June as a guarantee against violation of the prohibition law was dismissed by Federal Judge Thacher, who, however, said he believed liquor was served the agents, but that Moore did not know about it.

Miss Melius was produced as a witness at the request of Judge Thacher after Herbert E. Slade, an agent, testified that on his three visits to Moore's restaurant he had been accompanied by a woman agent he knew only as "Miss Melius."

Questioned by Judge Thacher as to whether she drank liquor at Moore's place, she replied:

"Yes, I drank old-fashioned cocktails and rye highballs." She then corroborated in detail the testimony of Slade.

She said she received $5 a night for her services from "James Donovan," the chief prohibition investigator for Administrator Campbell. She started work as a prohibition agent last December, she said, and was discharged a few days ago because "funds for enforcement were low."

During the daytime, she said, she worked as a typist at a business office in the building adjoining prohibition headquarters.

While prohibition agents frequently have admitted taking their wives with them on investigations into the night life district, they were not in the employ of the government.

Floyd Prisoner, Awaiting Trial, Escapes Jail

Rome, Ga., January 25.—(Special).—Clifford Cox, a white youth held on a misdemeanor charge, made a sensational escape from Floyd county county house just before noon today.

Cox was in a room off from the superior courtroom, waiting to be summoned before the judge. The bailiff, just outside the door, summoned him, he did not answer and on pushing the door found it would not give. The door was thumbed and had to be broken in.

Cox had escaped. He had secreted a blanket on his person and dropped from the second-story window. He has a bad record in the county, it is said. Officers have telegraphed a description of him to officers in adjoining cities.

Dr. W. F. Melton Is Elected President of Burns' Club

BOUNTIFUL BANQUET PROVIDED MEMBERS President of Burns' Club

DR. W. F. MELTON,
President.

BY BEN COOPER.

"Some have meat and canna eat. And some have eat that want it. But we have meat and we can eat. And see the Lord be thanked."

With these words of grace, the Burns club of Atlanta Friday night came down to one of the most bountiful and delicious repasts in the history of the club's annual banquets.

Two and a half hours, modeled after the original Burns cottage in Ayr, on Confederate avenue, was "panged and neeb" with Scotsmen and their guests, who were served by honny waiters in fetching Highland costumes.

Three dishes dear to the heart of loyal Scotch were imported directly from the "auld" country for the banquet, these being "The haggis," which was paraded around the hall to the tune of the traditional bag pipes, fiddle, and "The haggis," "The haggis," a form of liver pudding described by the poet, Robert Burns, as "chief of the pudding race," came from "Auld Reekie," or Edinburgh.

Joseph W. Humphries, retiring president of the club, was presented with a handsome silver loving cup as a token of the esteem of the members, while Mrs. David Buchanan, who always prepares the annual dinner, was presented with a bag of gold pieces.

The presentation was made by Walter McElreath, a former president of the club.

Dr. Wightman F. Melton was installed as the new president of the club.

Governor L. G. Hardman, showing continued improvement after his recent illness, was in the office at the capitol for a short while Friday morning. John W. Wilson, private secretary to the governor, was still confined to his home with a cold.

Two appointments were announced by the governor during his stay at the executive offices.

E. E. Dekle, of Valdosta, was made a member of the board of trustees of the Georgia State Woman's college, at Valdosta, succeeding the late H. Y. Tillman, of the same city, who died some weeks ago.

Miss Kate Dozier, of Gainesville, prominent in educational circles of the state, was named a trustee of the Georgia Training School for Girls, at Atlanta, succeeding Mrs. Thomas Latham, of Atlanta, resigned.

Delegates to Athens Meet Drop Business and "Make Merry."

Athens, Ga., January 25.—(AP)—Demonstration agents and farmers attending the twenty-second annual farmers' week and marketing conference at the Georgia State College of Agriculture, tonight dropped the business that brought them here this week and joined in making merry at an old-fashioned square dance in Hardman hall.

The dance followed the annual banquet of alumni of the college, held in the cafeteria of Conner hall, at which Chancellor Charles A. Snelling, of the University of Georgia, and Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the State College of Agriculture, were speakers.

Representatives of the classes of '18, '19, '20 and '21 made short talks. Classes were presented in a call by years.

The dance and alumni meeting formed the high spot in an active week which brought county demonstration agents, district agents, home economics workers, and representatives of all parts of the state. Dr. Soule today declared the week one outstanding in the history of the annual gathering.

W. F. Callender, statistician of the division of crop and livestock reporting of the United States department of agriculture at Washington, was one of the speakers at the annual conference, taking as his subject "Crop Forecasting and Its Importance to Producers and Market Agencies."

Other speakers at the afternoon conference were Professor Paul Taber, professor of agronomy in charge of farm crops at the college of agriculture, who discussed "The Path of the Farm Crop," and W. A. Minor, farm management specialist of the college, who spoke on "Utilizing Outlook Data," and Professor Archie L. Flanagan, A. E. Griffith, E. L. Hill, S. J. Cartledge, J. J. Strickland, E. H. Dorsey, Sr., E. K. Lumpkin, Sr., board of trustees of the University of Georgia, the chancellor and faculty of the university, the vestry of Emanuel church, the Kappa Alpha fraternity, the Athens bar and the Alumni association of the university.

As a mark of respect to Dr. Morris, university classes will be suspended after 1 o'clock Saturday.

Interment will be in Oconee cemetery.

Famous Quartet To Give Recital This Afternoon

Appearing for the last time in Atlanta, the Flozalez quartet, famous chamber music group, will be heard in recital at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the women's club auditorium under auspices of the Atlanta Music club.

The recent announcement of the Flozalez quartet that its twenty-fifth anniversary this season would mark the termination of its career as a chamber-music organization was received with surprise and regret by the music lovers of America.

It is announced that the decision of Glonzalez to terminate the career of the quartet at the zenith of its maturity and success is due to the excessive and arduous travel necessary to play an average of 100 concerts every season, the strain of which is so great as to threaten the physical strength of the members.

Three of the members, however, Betti, Pochon and Moldovan expect to continue after disbandment in other individual musical capacities in this country.

Tickets for the concert will remain on sale at Phillips & Crew Piano Co. until 2 o'clock this afternoon at which time they will be removed to the woman's club box office.

The program for this afternoon follows:

I. Beethoven—Quartet in B flat major, Op. 18, No. 6.
II. Allegro con brio
Adagio, ma non troppo
Scherzo
La Mollinona (Adagio) Allegretto quasi allegro.

III. Glazunov—Quartet in D major, Op. 1.
Andantino moderato-allegro
Scherzo (vivace)
Andante
Finale (moderato)

IV. Smetana—Largo sostenuto
Allegro moderato (alla Polka)

The case was investigated by Mrs. McDonough and Mrs. Howell, policewomen, and the girl was given refuge in a mission home, it was said.

DISABLED TANKER HANNADAIKE HEADS FOR NEARBY PORT

Hamilton, Bermuda, January 25.—The American tanker Hannadaike, which has been slowly making her way toward Bermuda after being in distress on the night of January 2, notified the authorities here today that she expects to reach Murray's anchorage early tomorrow morning.

The ship, which had started on that day to the aid of the Italian freighter Florida but had to abandon the attempt because of her own peril, stated that she was proceeding under her own steam.

Two of her crew, injured during the storm, need hospital attention.

—Regarding How Much Competition You'll Have

Select at random a dozen of your friends. One by one try to persuade them to help you get the correct total of all the numbers shown on this illustration.

Even with a $2,169 brand-new automobile as a reward, it is doubtful that anyone you ask will have the grit and stick-to-it-iveness to get more than half-way through with the problem. Most people give up after very neatly copying about one-third of the figures in rows preparatory to adding. See if the same thing doesn't happen to you.

THE RULES

1. 'RITHMETIC is open to all residents in the state of Georgia, and adjoining states, namely: Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee, with the exception of employees of The Atlanta Constitution and members of their families.

2. Entrants in 'RITHMETIC will be required to correctly add the numbers on any one or two or all three illustrations, each illustration representing a truck load of coal. Each illustration is known as a "Problem" and the "Problem" will be designated as "Problem No. 1," "Problem No. 2" and "Problem No. 3."

3. Three lists of prizes which will be known as "Prize List No. 1," "Prize List No. 2" and "Prize List No. 3" will be awarded. The person or persons correctly naming the total represented by any one or any two or all three of the three problems shall be eligible for first prize in whatever prize list (whether 1, 2 or 3) such contestant is competing. The person or persons submitting the nearest correct answer to any one or any two or all three of the "Problems" shall be eligible for the additional prizes in order of the correctness of the answers, providing conformity is made to all the rules of 'RITHMETIC.

4. To qualify for a prize in 'RITHMETIC, each contestant must qualify his or her answers as follows:

PRIZE LIST NO. 1 requires 2 annual subscriptions to The Daily and Sunday Atlanta Constitution, one of which must be new at $9.50 each and accompanied by $19.00 in the form of money order, check or cash.

PRIZE LIST NO. 2 requires 1 annual subscription to The Daily and Sunday Atlanta Constitution, either new or a renewal accompanied by $9.50 in the form of money order, check or cash.

PRIZE LIST NO. 3 requires 1 6-months subscription to The Daily and Sunday Atlanta Constitution, either new or renewals, and must be accompanied by $5 in the form of money order, check or cash. No solution unaccompanied by remittance as stated in Prize Lists Nos. 1, 2 and 3 will be recorded.

5. The contest will be closed to the public on February 14, 1929, at which time all solutions accompanied by the subscription requirements must be delivered to the office of The Atlanta Constitution by midnight, February 14, 1929, or mailed at any postoffice in Georgia or adjoining states bearing postmark of no later date than February 14, 1929. The result will be published as nearly as possible within from ten to fifteen days thereafter.

6. Any contestant is privileged to compete for an award in any one or all three of the prize lists and any contestant may win an award in each prize list. However, no contestant can win more than one prize out of each prize list. Any person upon entering or upon sending in an answer to 'RITHMETIC agrees to accept as final the decision of The Atlanta Constitution upon any or all questions that may be raised in the conducting of 'RITHMETIC and in the making of awards.

7. For each additional annual subscription, either new or renewal, and accompanied by $9.50 and over and above the requirement for each prize list, a contestant is privileged to submit an additional answer to the "Problem" in which that contestant is qualified. In other words, a contestant would be permitted to submit two sets of answers to "Prize List No. 1" if the 2 answers were accompanied by 3 annual subscriptions, whereas a contestant in "Prize List No. 2" would be required to submit 2 annual subscriptions in order to submit 2 sets of answers to "Prize List No. 2."

8. A contestant is privileged to advance from one prize list to another or to direct that his qualifying subscriptions be applied to whatever prize list he may choose, providing such notice is given in writing to The Atlanta Constitution on or before 12 days following the close of the contest.

9. In case of ties as many prizes will be reserved in each prize list as there are people tied in that prize list before any prizes are awarded for a less correct solution; that is, if two or more people should tie in submitting correct or near-correct answers to any one of the problems, the first two or more prizes will be reserved for those persons so tying, and the prizes will be awarded in the correctness of the answers to such contestants to a second problem which will consist of adding another series of numbers. If any ties still remain a third problem, consisting of numbers arranged in parallel and horizontal lines, and which is to be solved by starting at some number in the left-hand column of the numbered chart, drawing a line perpendicularly and horizontally across the chart through from three to five numbers, between each turn, until the line reaches a number on the opposite side of the illustration; then adding the numbers through which the line passes, will be presented to the tying contestants. The contestant whose line passes through the numbers according to the rules and who has the largest sum total, correctly added, will be declared the highest, etc. If necessary to eliminate further ties, the same numbered chart with slightly changed rules will be submitted, and this repeated if necessary, as many as four times, after which, should any ties exist for any award, each tying contestant will be given a duplicate prize.

Read This, then mail the coupon printed in the lower right-hand corner of this page.

The important thing to remember about this contest is that there are three different prize lists, and three different problems.

Each Prize List carries a Problem all its own.

For instance, the problem you see printed in the center of this page is PROBLEM NO. 1. Any person who wants to win a prize in PRIZE LIST NO. 1 must send in an answer to this problem. In case no contestant sends in the absolutely correct answer, then first prize in PRIZE LIST NO. 1 will be won by the person sending in the nearest approaching the correct total of all the numbers.

If you are at all interested in this contest and have any degree of faith in your ability to add accurately, the thing to do is MAIL IN THE COUPON PRINTED IN THE LOWER RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF THIS PAGE. Immediately upon receipt of your request, the 'Rithmetic Editor of The Atlanta Constitution will mail you all three of the problems and other such helpful information as has been prepared for contestants.

This is a plain case of 'Rithmetic. There are no figures to put in a circle, or words to build, or letters to write. Neatness does not count.

The main point is ACCURACY.

Look at the list of Prizes. Read the rules. Decide whether you have the patience and ability to go through with the job of adding all the numbers shown on the illustration printed in the middle of the page. If you feel that you can accurately add these numbers, GIVE YOURSELF A CHANCE.

Mail the coupon immediately addressed to the 'Rithmetic Editor of The Atlanta Constitution, Constitution Building, Atlanta, Georgia.

Final Week-End of January Marked by Gay Social Program

The final week-end of January will be marked by innumerable social gayeties at which brides-elect and members of the college set will be prominent figures. Included in the list of brides-to-be who will be honor guests in parties today are Misses Beulah Perkins, Mary Harvey, Dorothy Fluker and Dorothy Mozley.

Among the outstanding affairs of this afternoon will be the concert presented by the Flonzaley Quartet at the Atlanta Woman's club auditorium, which will assemble a large number of music lovers who anticipate the appearance of this well-known musical organization from year to year.

Dinner-dances at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel, Piedmont Driving club and Atlanta Athletic club this evening will bring today's social program to a gay end.

Mrs. Webb Honors Rhododendron Club.

Mrs. Cleve Webb was hostess to the Rhododendron club Wednesday, January 23. The chairman of social service, Mrs. J. W. Bridwell, was in charge of the program and the speaker of the afternoon was Miss Marie Scott, social service worker at Grady hospital. Mrs. J. B. McNelly gave two beautiful vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Gertman.

Miss Weingarten Weds Herbert Brooks.

A marriage of cordial interest to a host of friends in New York, Detroit and Atlanta, was that of Miss Jeanette Weingarten, of New York and Atlanta, and Herbert Brooks, of this city, which was solemnized at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Brooks, on Rock Springs road in Morningstar, Thursday evening at 9 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Judge John D. Humphreys, being performed in an impressive manner in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few close friends. Miss Francis Lefur, cousin of the groom, played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride, who is a lovely brunette type, made a striking bride in a dress of cream brown transparent velvet, with a touch of cream lace; her charming hat was in two shades of brown. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home. The dining table was overlaid with an exquisite Irish lace cover which had as its central decoration a lovely silver basket of white carnations and asparagus ferns. Four tall silver candlesticks graced the table, each holding a tall unshaded yellow taper; narcissi were used throughout the house.

Immediately after the wedding the young couple motored to Lookout mountain and on their return will be at home in the "Gordon Terrace" apartments on Euclid avenue, Inman Park.

The bride, who formerly resided in New York and Detroit, has made a host of friends since making Atlanta her home. She received her education in the schools of Detroit.

Mr. Brooks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brooks. He attended the Tech High school, where he was two years the popular captain of the Tech high football team.

Helped at Change of Life

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine at the Change of Life. I would get blue spells and just walk the floor. I was nervous, could not sleep at night, and was not able to do my work. I know if it had not been for your medicine I would have been in bed most of this time and had a big doctor's bill. If women would only take your medicine they would be better."—Mrs. Anna Weaver, R. F. D. No. 2, Rose Hill, Iowa.

Perkins-Black Wedding Party Is Entertained

Honoring Miss Bootsie Perkins and David Black, whose marriage will be an event of February, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cooke entertained at a bridge-supper Friday evening at their home on The Prado in Ansley Park. The guests included the members of the wedding party and a group of friends of the honor guest.

The home was artistically decorated in spring flowers forming a picturesque setting for the party. Mrs. Cooke wore a becoming model of black velvet fashioned along straight lines. A deep lace bertha was a feature of the attractive gown.

Miss Perkins wore a model of jade green moire, made with straight waist and graceful skirt introducing modish drapery at the side which formed an uneven hemline. A lovely shoulder bouquet offset the attractive model.

Spanish War Veterans' Auxiliary Sponsors Contest

A prize essay contest open to all grammar and high school students of the state is being sponsored by the department of Georgia auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans. Two prizes of five-dollar gold pieces will be given the boy and girl submitting the best essay on the theme "Comparison of the Conditions in Cuba Prior to the Spanish-American War With Those of Today."

Subject matter may be found in any library. Essays should contain not more than 1,500 words. The judges will make the selections from the winning essays sent the state committee by the auxiliary. Each auxiliary will give a prize to the boy or girl from a school in the town in which the auxiliary is located, writing the best essay, and from the prize-winning essays the department prizes will be awarded.

Essays must be written on one side of paper; not necessarily typed, but legibly written. The contest closes May 15 when every essay must be in the committee's hands. The committee is composed of Mrs. Ada Ramp Walcott, chairman, Augusta; Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, Atlanta; Mrs. Hattie McMillan, Decatur; Mrs. Oswald Easton, Macon; Mrs. Sarah Knox, Savannah; Mrs. Maude Gilbert, Albany; Mrs. Herschel Carruthers, Athens; Mrs. Leila Walker Jones, Macon; Mrs. Inez Haynie Brunswick.

The average student knows little of the causes of that war; the suffering of the soldiers; hundreds of whom died of malignant tropical fever, and who had so little of the comforts none of the luxuries enjoyed by the American soldier today; nor does he know of the starvation by thousands of the inhabitants of Cuba, "Flower of the Antilles," because of Spanish misrule. This last fact is responsible for the essay subject selected by the department chairman of essays.

Miss Robinson Weds Mr. Sanford At Beautiful Home Ceremony

Of cordial social interest to a wide circle of friends throughout Georgia and the middle west was the marriage of Miss Rosalie Robinson, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Robinson, to Daniel B. Sanford, which was beautifully solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Emory road at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

The marriage service was read by the Rev. D. P. McGeachy and was witnessed by the members of the bride's and groom's immediate families and a small group of close friends.

The living rooms of the home were thrown en suite, an attractive arrangement of roses and gladioli in varying shades of pink forming the decorations. At one end of the long living room, extending across the width of the house, an altar was formed of palms and ferns, interspersed with floor standards filled with long-stemmed pink radiance roses.

In the dining room, where the wedding breakfast was served, the lace-covered table was centered with a graceful silver basket filled with the same lovely blossoms, silver candlesticks holding tall pink tapers flanking either side of the centerpiece. There were no attendants, the beautiful young bride entering with her father, R. H. Robinson, who gave her in marriage. She was radiantly lovely, wearing a smart going-away costume developed in two shades of gray, which was especially becoming to her gray eyes, fair coloring and golden brown hair. A modish close-fitting gray felt hat completed the bridal ensemble, her flowers being a corsage bouquet of gardenias and valley lilies.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. Sanford and his bride left for a motor trip through Florida. They will be at home after March 1 at their apartment on St. Charles avenue. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robinson, who formerly made their home in St. Louis, Mo. Since coming to Atlanta to reside she has been a charming and popular addition to the younger social contingent and has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends who will be interested in her marriage. Receiving her early training in St. Louis, she finished her education at Agnes Scott college.

Mr. Sanford is the son of Mrs. D. S. Sanford and the late Mr. Sanford, of Milledgeville. His only sister is Miss Mara Sanford, of Atlanta. A graduate of both the Georgia Military academy and the Georgia School of Technology, he is a popular figure in social and business life of the city. A member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, he also holds membership in the Atlanta Athletic club, the East Lake Country club and the Shrine. He is at present connected with the J. B. McCarty Construction company and is prominent among the civil engineers of the state.

Riding, Dinner Parties and Teas Are of Social Interest at Fort

Fort McPherson, January 25.—Friday's social calendar was crowded with interesting events, and milady's day was a mad scramble to replace the boots and riding tops of early morning for colorful afternoon frocks for the tea hour and a dash home to don charming evening gowns for the dinner given by members of the army group prior to the hop at Officers' club.

General and Mrs. Abraham G. Lott entertained Friday evening at a smart dinner at their quarters in honor of General and Mrs. Harold B. Fiske, who are recent charming additions to army circles. The handsomely appointed table was graced with a low silver bowl filled with yellow caladium and pink sweet peas while at either end antique silver goblets filled with the same flowers were effectively arranged. Tall green tapers in silver holders, shed a mellow glow over the table where covers were placed for General and Mrs. Fiske, Colonel and Mrs. Lawrence Halstead, Colonel and Mrs. Frank Jewell, Major Mrs. Augustus B. Jones, Miss Berenice Fiske, Miss Virginia Fiske, Major Graham Johnston, Major Harry E. Dieber, Captain James A. Donahue and Lieutenant F. de L. Comfort and General and Mrs. Lott.

Invited for the occasion were 26 members of the army social contingent.

A charming southerner, Mrs. M. P. Seals, of Birmingham, Ala., who arrived this week for an extended visit with her son and daughter, Major and Mrs. Carl H. Seals, at the garrison, will be the inspiration for a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Seals at the Piedmont Driving club Wednesday, January 30. The guest list will include 36 members of the military contingent.

Jack Dempsey Warns Ticket Speculators

Promoter Declares Every Effort Will Be Made To Halt Scalpers' Work.

Miami Beach, Fla., January 25.—(AP)—Ticket scalpers today received their second warning from Jack Dempsey, promoter of the heavy-weight elimination bout to be held here February 27. In a general statement, he asserted that attempts to purchase tickets for the purpose of giving the middleman something to do, would continue to be halted at his office here.

While he did not say as much, Dempsey's friends here maintained that the former heavyweight champion, filling the gap left vacant by the death of Tex Rickard, is determined to give his public an even break in the matter of pastebards to the fight. It is said that he is furnishing the expected 40,000 fight fans to sit down at his debut as a promoter on the night of February 27 with their appetites for a mixup unimpaired by a ticket price.

When we first announced the opening of reservations and advance sales, we ruled that blocks of ten tickets or more would not be sold to purchasers unless they were known to want the cards for their personal use," Dempsey said. "We intend to keep that ruling in effect."

Large blocks of tickets have been sold locally and in the cities. Dempsey said, but added that in each case the purchasers were known to Madison Square Garden officials here or in New York.

"We have been approached by several men whom we know to be interested in large blocks of tickets for the purpose of retaining them at a higher price than our established rates," he said. "But in each instance, their requests have been denied."

BY JOHN P. BOUGHAN.

Associated Press Market Editor.

Chicago, January 25.—(P)—Widespread extreme cold and simultaneous need of snow covering for domestic winter wheat pushed grain prices up sharply today despite selling to realize profits. Trade in all the grain pits was broader, and corn and oats both went above the season's previous tip-top quotations.

Wheat values closed firm at 7-8 to 1-3-4 cent advance, corn finishing strong, 1-1/2 to 1-5/8 up, oats showing 1-1/2 to 5-8 to 7-8 cent advance, varying from 2-1/2 to 3-1/2 and a rise of 1-1/2.

From the outset, the wheat market gave evidence of increased buying, based largely on reports of unfavorable crop conditions that stretched from the Rockies to the Alleghenies.

Misgivings about likelihood of damage to winter wheat were increased only by word of abundant low temperatures sweeping across the country but also by the fact that the official snow map indicated

throughout big areas, especially west of the Missouri river and in Illinois and Indiana. Under such conditions, all deliveries of wheat recorded, had a general bracing effect as well on corn, rye and oats.

Friends of higher prices made much of the fact that grain and provision markets are rapidly taking on greater momentum because of increasing belief in the value of corn commodities as expressed in current prices.

Corn showed decided strength notwithstanding that country offerings were larger on account of better price. In addition to sympathizing with wheat, corn action was apparently due to persistent advance crop news from Argentina. Breakdown of late of more than $1.00 a hundred-weight on hogs were a stimulus, predicting that feeding of livestock would increase.

Reports were received that sales of hides and bacon from the United States had expanded in central Europe as much as $1.00 per hundred.

Provisions were helped by strength in corn and by expected falling-off in the movement of hogs to market.

COLUMBIA SEMINARY AUDIENCE HEARS ELLIS

Traveler and Writer Discusses Tour of Bible Cities of Asia Minor.

That Emperor Augustus, of Rome, himself left a record, which still survives, of the census which brought Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem for the birth of Christ, was told Friday night to a large audience at Columbia Theological seminary in Decatur, by Dr. William T. Ellis, of Swarthmore, Pa., traveler and writer.

This amazing discovery was made at Ankara, the present capital of Turkey, where there still remains a ruined temple that was built by the Roman senate in honor of Augustus. Engraved in Latin on the walls of this temple, still legible, is the political autobiography of the Emperor Augustus, in which he recites his own achievements. Among them he mentions the three censuses which he had taken.

This is the only record extant of the second of these, which was made at the time of the birth of Christ. Because of the lack of any Roman record of this census, critics of the Bible and of the Christmas story have accused Luke of having faked his facts. Now, after nearly 2,000 years, the Emperor Augustus himself emerges to bear testimony to the truth of the Biblical record.

Dr. Ellis' lecture Friday night covered his travels over the Bible cities of Asia Minor, Macedonia, Greece and Italy. He recited striking geographical evidences of the truth of the Bible story. In describing Ephesus, he told the story of how, 20 years ago, he found a block of marble containing a beautiful cross, which had fallen from the an-

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 18

Tarzan was anxious to return to the cabin and continue his investigations of its wondrous contents. So early one morning he set forth alone. He found the knife, beside the bones of the gorilla. Entering the closed door, he found the door and then turned his attention to the picture books.

The pictures caught his fancy most. One, of a little ape similar to himself, fascinated him mightily. It had a strange colored fur, for such he thought the coat and trousers were. Beneath the picture were these little bugs—B-O-Y. Under another picture the "bug" appeared again—A B-O-Y AND A D-O-G.

Long he puzzled; but slowly, very slowly, he learned. By the time he was fifteen he knew the various combinations of letters that stood for every picture in the little primer and in one or two of the picture books. He persevered for months—each time he came to the cabin.

One day he found a number of lead pencils in a drawer. Scratching upon the table top with one of them, he was delighted to find the black line it left behind it. He attempted to reproduce some of the little "bugs" of his books. It was a difficult task.

Repeated experiments taught him how to hold a pencil. Thus he made a beginning at writing. From then on his progress was rapid. His reason now told him he was of a different race from his companions. He was a M-A-N. He didn't know he could not speak man's language.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

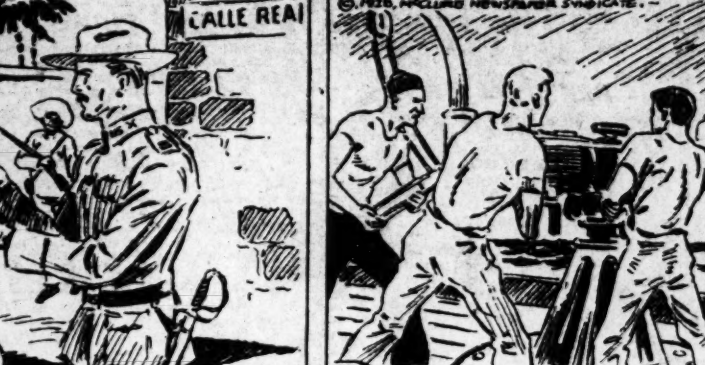

Registered U. S. Patent Office

WHEN THE FIGHTING WITH THE INSURGENTS AT MANILA BEGAN, THE CRUISER "BOSTON" AND THE GUNBOAT "PETREL", WITH THREE TRANS-PORTS BEARING 3,000 SOLDIERS UNDER GEN. MARCOS MILLER, WERE LYING IN THE HARBOR OF ILOILO, AN IMPORTANT CITY ON THE ISLAND OF PANAY, HELD BY THE FILIPINO REBELS. THE EXPEDITION HAD BEEN LYING OFF ILOILO FOR NEARLY A MONTH AWAITING ORDERS FROM MANILA.

The Philippine Insurrection.

The Capture of Iloilo.

UPON RECEIPT OF ORDERS FROM GENERAL OTIS ON FEB. 27TH, GEN. MILLER ON THE 10TH SENT AN ULTIMATUM TO THE INSURGENTS, WARNING THEM THAT AN ATTACK WOULD BE MADE UPON ILOILO WITHIN 24 HOURS IF THE WORK OF STRENGTHENING THE DEFENSES OF THE CITY WAS NOT DISCONTINUED AT ONCE.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

THE NEXT MORNING THE INSURGENTS WERE OBSERVED STILL THROWING UP EARTHWORKS. WHEREUPON THE CRUISER "BOSTON" FIRED TWO WARNING SHOTS. THE FILIPINOS DIVED INTO THEIR TRENCHES AND COMMENCED FIRING AT THE AMERICAN VESSELS.

A FEW WELL-AIMED SHOTS FROM THE WARSHIPS AND THE ENEMY FLED. SOLDIERS AND SAILORS LANDED AND TOOK POSSESSION OF THE CITY WITHOUT THE LOSS OF A MAN. AFTER CAPTURING ILOILO, THE AMERICANS HAD TO WORK LIKE TROJANS EXTINGUISHING FIRES STARTED BY THE RETREATING INSURGENTS.
